July 2020 Your President's Message

July 2020

Greetings Brother Shillelachs:

Hope you are all well! It is hard to believe that July 4th has already come and gone.

The Club has been opened now for almost one month and it is going as well as can be expected given the circumstances. We still have limited hours and the weather of late has provided an additional challenge. We will continue to adjust to the circumstances as things change.

Please remember to social distance while at the club and to wear a mask when entering the club and when you are not seated at a table. It is a requirement, so please cooperate. I would hate to see the governor shut the bars down again. If do not feel well or if you have any of the COVID 19 symptoms, please do not come to the club.

We have a couple of our annual events coming up to look forward to. The Annual Golf Outing is scheduled for Friday July 24th, 2020 at Pebble Creek Golf Course. The event sold out quick, as it usually does, however a waiting list was started in case anyone who signed up cannot attend. Please contact Ray Barnes with any questions or if you would like to sponsor the event.

The Shillelagh Fluke Tournament will take place on Saturday August 8th, 2020. Information on that is within the newsletter. We will need volunteers to help that day and the night before for the Captain's meeting. Please contact Ryan Lavender, Pete Sykes or Bill Clohosey to volunteer, donate or sponsor the Fluke Tournament or if you have any questions.

In the next few weeks, we will have some baseball to look forward to as well as the hockey playoffs and other sports will be starting up as well. So hopefully, as club and as a nation, we will continue to move forward to get back to a more normal way of life.

I hope you and your family enjoy the rest of the summer!

Bill "Mumbles" Ryan

President FSOS Belmar

The Order of The Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh of the Jersey Shore

about us:

We invite you to show your support, honor friends and family, to remember loved ones, or commemorate special occasions by purchasing tribute bricks to be placed in the walkway and landscaped area in front of The New Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh Clubhouse in Belmar. Best of all, your brick purchase will help the new FSOS clubhouse, which in turn helps the FSOS continue its mission of celebrating Irish- American culture and helping countless members of our community who are less fortunate or in need.

The laser engraved bricks are guaranteed for life, with permanent paint that never wears away.

There are several brick sizes and price options to choose from.

Thank You

The Pipes and Drums of the Jersey Shore

July 2020

Seems like the world is taking a step forward, then backward as we seek out a way to whatever the new normal will be due to Covid-19.

The band finally got back together for a few rehearsals to circle up and play a few tunes!

We are moving forward and started working on new tune, Leaving of Liverpool. This will be a challenge to learn until we get together again inside on practice chanters and pads. I think this tune will become a band favorite in the near future.

Remember: many of our brothers are still working as essential employees all over the area. Show your support for them when possible as things begin to open up ever so slowly.

Yes, even in the midst of covid-19, today – right now - can be the day that you will always remember when you decided to learn to play bagpipes or drums! YOU CAN LEARN!!!!

Why are you waiting????? Students are currently learning to play! They heard the Pipe and Drums calling and are well on their way to becoming pipers and drummers! Today IS the day you decided to start the journey to learn to play!

Maybe you know how to play already and want to get back into it. Again, I ask Why ARE YOU WAITING??? Today IS the day you will always remember when you got back into playing again!

Learning how to play bagpipes or drums is a great way to be involved with the band, club, your Irish Heritage and of course to do something fun!

Give me a call (732) 685-9232, email me or the band!

Our email is band@jspipesanddrums.com, which can be accessed by visiting our website at www.jspipesanddrums.com for more information to join or hire us. You can talk to me or any other band member for information.

At this time we are not holding rehearsals or lessons in person. We can have a lesson over zoom or Skype. Please contact me (info is above and below) if you are interested. We are taking requests to perform on a case by case basis based on availability. Please contact our Band Manager Mark Mastowski – info is below

We perform over 80% of the time for charities. The requests vary from a lone bagpiper to a small group or the entire band performing for local fundraisers, events and parades throughout the year from club members and the community. In addition, we perform at quite a few club events annually.

If you wish to have the band, small group or bagpiper perform for just about any event or perhaps perform in your living room or backyard BBQ to let those neighbors know your proud of your Irish Heritage, please let our Band Manager Mark Mastowski (732) 233-6136 or anyone in the band know.

We do our best to accommodate all requests. Please realize that Band Members, just like you and everyone else, have family, job commitments and other obligations along with circumstances that come up (some of which are beyond our control) that makes it impossible for us to accommodate all requests.

If anyone that has pictures or videos of the band, please post to our Facebook page and/or email to us at band@jspipesanddrums.com, thank you!

Slainte!!

Irish History #73

Two Mutinies and Two Executions 100 Years Ago

Two mutinies - 6,000 miles apart - took place in June 1920. Both were related to the presence of British soldiers in Ireland. The Connaught Ranger mutiny happened in Punjab, India. The Listowel Mutiny occurred in Listowel, Co. Kerry.

The Connaught Rangers were one of 8 Irish regiments (north and south) in the British Army. The Rangers home base was Galway. During World War I (WWI), they fought at Gallipoli in the 10th Irish Division, and at the Somme in the 16th Irish Division where they suffered heavy losses. The Rangers were stationed in India during the original "Troubles" - the Irish War of Independence - to minimize divided loyalties among Irish soldiers in the British Army. Nonetheless, some of the soldiers could not escape from the divided loyalties they held.

A Connaught Ranger attended a hurling match while home on leave in Co. Clare. He was dismayed by the presence of "Crown Forces" with fixed bayonets at the game. Upon returning to his unit in the Punjab, he discussed his observations at the match and the need to do something about it. He and three other Rangers engaged in a peaceful protest by taking over a guardroom. The next day 250 more Rangers joined-in by laying down their arms, wearing rosettes that were the color of the Irish flag and singing Irish nationalist songs.

The protest was aimed at British policy in Ireland and the actions of the Black and Tans. The Black and Tans were veterans of WWI. They were recruited to serve as police "constables" in Ireland to support the Royal Irish Constabulary (RIC), who were unable to control the IRA insurgency. Their name - Black and Tans - derived from the khaki trousers and black jackets they wore. The clothing, although not a uniform, was distinctive and the name caught-on.

Policemen they weren't. The Black and Tans were more like an undisciplined and thuggish paramilitary militia.

Noted for assassinating republicans, burning homes and businesses, and conducting reprisals, the Black and Tans quickly gained a reputation among the Irish people for being vengeful and murderous. What they wrought on Ireland was a "reign of terror." British Secretary of War Winston Churchill's decision to restore law and order by sending the Black and Tans to reinforce the RIC was a miserable failure. It backfired by causing increased disorder. And their brutish conduct was directly tied to an increase in support for the IRA and independence.

To spread the protest, two Ranger mutineers went to another military base with a Ranger detachment. After arrest, they were returned to the original base and placed in the guardhouse. At the second base, however, a protest took root. As part of a "passive resistance," protesters handed their weapons over to British officers. After a change of heart, 30 Rangers in C Company attempted to seize the rifles from the armory. The protest was no longer peaceful. Two of the rioters were shot and killed. British troops from other garrisons were called-in to quell the disturbances at both locations.

88 Rangers were charged with mutiny and court-martialed. Ten were acquitted; the rest were convicted and imprisoned. 14 of those convicted were sentenced to death. Private James Daly, from Co. Westmeath, was spokesman for the protesters in C Company. He received a death sentence, which was carried-out before year's end when he was shot by firing-squad. He was the last member of the British armed forces to be executed for mutiny. His body was exhumed in India and returned home in 1970. Sentences for the others on death row were commuted. All prisoners were released from jail after Ireland gained independence. When they returned to their native land, they were shunned by those sympathetic to the IRA for joining the British Army and by former soldiers for being "turncoats."

That same month, back in Ireland, there was another mutiny related to the presence of British security forces. We've read about Lieutenant Colonel (LTC) Gerald Smyth on these pages before (Chapter 67). Shortly after his appointment as Divisional Police Commissioner for Munster, he addressed members of the RIC in Listowel. According Irish Central News, he told them:

"Sinn Fein have had all the sport up to the present, but we are going to have the sport now. The police are not in sufficient strength to do anything but hold their barracks. This is not enough for as long as we remain on the defensive, so long will Sinn Fein have the whip hand. We must take the offensive . . . I am promised as many troops from England as I require, thousands are coming daily.

Third, if a police barracks is burned or if the barracks already occupied is not suitable, then the best house in the locality is to be commandeered, the occupants thrown in the gutter. Let them die there - the more the merrier.

Fourth, police and military will patrol the country at least five nights a week. They are not to confine themselves to main roads, but to make across the country, lie in ambush and when civilians are seen approaching shout 'Hands-up.'

Fifth, would the order 'Hands-up' not be immediately obeyed, shoot and shoot with effect. If the person approaching a patrol carry their hands in their pocket, or are in any was suspicious looking shoot them down. You may make mistakes occasionally and innocent persons may be shot, but that cannot be helped, and you are bound to get the right parties some time. The more you shoot, the better I will like you, and I assure you no policeman will get into trouble shooting any man.

General Tudor and myself, want your assistance in carrying out this scheme and wiping out Sinn Fein. Any man who is prepared to be a hindrance rather than a help to us, had better leave the job at once."

There are many problems with this talk. It blurs the line between military action and police work. It calls for unjustified reprisals, elevating them to the level of official government policy. It encourages unlawful extra-judicial killings, by saying they will be viewed as good and go unpunished.

RIC Constable Jeremiah Mee, from Co. Sligo, took LTC Smyth up on his admonition for the law-abiding to leave the job. Irish Central News reported that Mee stepped forward and told Smyth: "By your accent I take it you are an Englishman and, in your ignorance, forget that you are addressing Irishmen." Then Mee placed his gun, cap, belt and bayonet on a table, saying "these too are English, take them as a present from me and to hell with you, you are a murderer." Smyth ordered Mee arrested, but the others ignored his order. 13 Constables joined Mee in tendering resignations.

Michael Collins learned about Smyth's words from one of the RIC men who was present. Smyth became a marked man, and six IRA men shot him to death in Cork a month later. Before killing him, the IRA team leader said: "Colonel, were not your orders to shoot on sight? Well, you are in sight now, so prepare." Smyth's body was returned to Northern Ireland for his funeral and burial in Banbridge, Co. Down.

The matter known as "Listowel Mutiny" ended in a reckoning for Smyth and the Black and Tans. Collins saw to it that they paid-off a debt in blood. Slan, EMN

LOCAL RESTAURANTS

CARRY OUT AND CARRY ON

In this extraordinary time of COVID-19, we need to be there for local restaurants. Many of the restaurants listed below have supported the Friendly Sons of Shillelagh in one way or another or a member works there. Not all of them are currently open now or are serving take out but it's important to help these places, many Member Owned, during and after this pandemic.

We apologize in advance if we inadvertently left anyone off. Please reach out and let us know if you are missing from the list and offering take out.

For over 40 years,
we've measured
success just one way:
Satisfied Customers

There was a time when Print & Copy shops were experienced and guided their customers. The goal was simple: commit to your customer's needs; be hardworking and humble; be knowledgeable in your work and uncompromising in your values. The rest will take care of itself.

Our success proves there is still room in the world for Print & Copy shops to embrace an approach that has stood the test of time:
Experienced Staff and Customer Satisfaction...Always!
